Objects Around the Tablescape

directed by Patrick Chia

A Chance Encounter of a Few Strange Objects

They came together on the same table, unable to express themselves well. They were not very articulate, and their gathering seemed accidental. Some did not seem to understand each other and some were even unclear, as to whether they should be on a table surface.

It was a chance encounter of a few strange objects.

d.lab™ is a commercial entity and trademark created by the Design Incubation Centre to communicate its research and outcomes through commercial distribution channels. d.lab™ aims to examine and create new possibilities and new relationships between man, object and his environment.

The Design Incubation Centre is a design research laboratory which investigates and develops new design tools to find new possibilities for the practice of design. This is done through projects that analyze the emerging and evolving human needs, technology and social trends.

The Design Incubation Centre is part of the Department of Architecture at the School of Design and Environment in the National University of Singapore.
